U.S. MIDTERM ELECTION RESULTS

As of 8:00AM EST on Wednesday, November 4, 2026

2026 DGA MIDTERM ELECTION SERIES

As of this morning, no Democratic incumbent has lost. That should tell you all you need to know about last night. From Guam to Maine and the Florida Keys to Nome, the American voter emphatically rejected President Trump. Punchbowl's Jake Sherman described Tuesday night's election outcome as an "extinction-level event for President Donald Trump's party on Capitol Hill." Whether or not you buy that, it was a stunning rebuke of President Trump, who now has to govern with a Democratic Party that holds both the House and Senate.

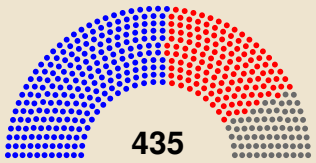

Congressional Races

Democrats flipped seven Republican-held Senate seats, defied Republican redistricting efforts and won House districts Trump carried comfortably in 2024. With Democrats' national House popular vote margin currently estimated at 12–13 points, the reversal extended well beyond traditional battlegrounds, reshaping the legislative and oversight landscape for the final two years of Trump's presidency.

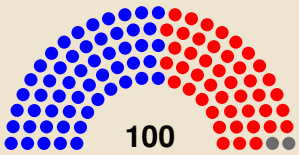

HOUSE

D 228 - R 139 Uncalled: 68

DEMOCRATS CONTROL

SENATE

D 54 - R 44 Uncalled: 2

DEMOCRATS CONTROL

Key Democratic House Pickups

CA-01	IA-03	NJ-07	PA-10	WI-03
CA-03	IN-05	OH-07	TX-15
CA-41	KY-06	OH-15	TX-23
CO-08	MO-02	PA-01	UT-01
IA-01	NC-11	PA-07	VA-02
IA-02	NE-02	PA-08	WI-01

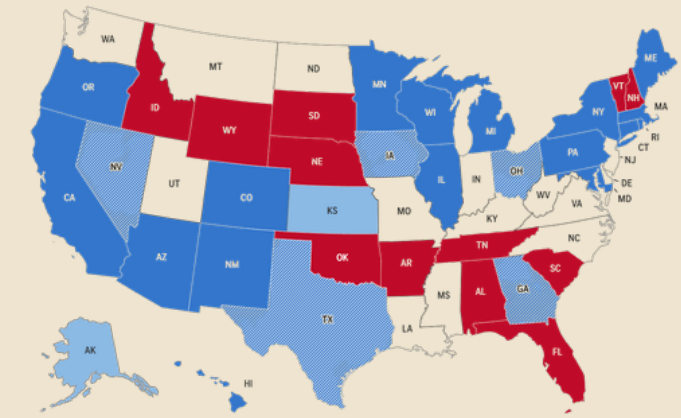

Key Democratic Senate Pickups

* - Incumbent

WON		LOST
Roy Cooper	NC	Michael Whatley
Sherrod Brown	OH	John Husted*
Troy Jackson	ME	Susan Collins*
Adam Hamilton	KS	Roger Marshall*
James Talarico	TX	Ken Paxton
Josh Turek	IA	Ashley Hinson
Annie Andrews	SC	Darline Graham

Gubernatorial Races

For the first time in 16 years, Democrats will hold a majority of governorships. In a night of historic firsts, Gina Hinojosa became the first Latina woman elected governor of Texas, David Crowley became Wisconsin's first Black governor, Keisha Lance Bottoms became the first Black woman elected governor in U.S. history, and Deb Haaland became the first Native American woman elected governor in U.S. history. In Florida, GOP Rep. Byron Donalds became Florida's first Black governor. There were elections in 36 states this year, and more than half were open races with no incumbent running. Six Democrats and eight Republicans were in office and not up for election.

Source: The Associated Press

D 28 - R 20 Uncalled: 2

DEMOCRATS CONTROL

Democratic Governor Flips
GA	Keisha Lance Bottoms
IA	Rob Sand
NV	Aaron D. Ford
OH	Amy Acton
TX	Gina Hinojosa

Patrick Casey, Managing Partner, U.S. Government Affairs
Patrick.Casey@dgagroup.com

Senate Battleground States' Election Certification Deadlines

Alaska
Nov 4: county canvass deadline
Nov 19: state certification deadline

Mississippi
Nov 13: county canvass deadline
Dec 3: state certification deadline

Other relevant dates

Nov 9: Current Congress returns for lame duck session

Jan 3: New Congress is sworn in

What people are saying

President Donald Trump:
"I wasn't on the Ballot and if I was, we would have won IN A LANDSLIDE! Thank you for your attention to this matter."

Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer:
"Wow, wow, wow."

Speaker Mike Johnson:
"This Democrat House majority will be led by the most radical and extreme leftists in American history... and come 2028, we WILL take back the House and we will finish the job."

Wall Street Journal Editorial Board:
"Republicans may console themselves that midterm defeats in second presidential terms are common. But this was more than a normal defeat. The loss of Senate seats and governorships in states that had become GOP redoubts will have ramifications for years to come. So will the cascading losses down ballot in state legislatures."

Ron DeSantis:
"Dems will get 55 Senate seats and 250+ House seats. Looking at the Senate map and considering such a massive House margin, it is very unlikely Republicans will recapture the Congress in 2028. Might not have a shot at Senate control until 2032."

Senator Ron Wyden:
"Subpoenas"

Congressman Robert Garcia:
"LAWYER UP"